

FIRST TROLLEY—Shown above is the first trolley which was introduced in Upper Merion Township in 1893 when electric power supplanted horses on the Norristown car lines. The motorman can be seen in front of the exposed platform of the car and the conductor in the rear. The trolley line extended from DeKalb St., Norristown, via DeKalb St. bridge, to Upper Merion Township.